For four weekends from May 20 to June 12, Disney-MGM Studios will be invaded by the forces of the dark side. Star Wars Weekends is inviting guests to choose their destiny in two uniquely themed areas of the Park—the Rebel Base and the Imperial Sector. There are more than 50 Star Wars characters to see: Chewbacca, Darth Vader, Ewoks, Stormtroopers, Queen Amidala, Darth Maul, Darth Sidious and more. Whether you want to hang out with the Empire or the Rebellion is up to you.

While you're at it, you'll also want to hop a ride to the moon of Endor. There's no better time to check out Star Tours, the classic Star Wars thrill ride that's become a Disney must-see.

Or the name of Princess Leia's home planet? Star Wars Weekends gives fans of all ages a chance to test their Jedi knowledge in a special Star Wars edition of Who Wants To Be A Millionaire – Play It! Or guests can use the force and see how they do in Tatooine Trivia Trials, a trivia contest especially for adults.

Kids Test Their Skills

The youngest Jedi wannabes

get a chance to hone their lightsaber skills at the Jedi Training Academy, where each young disciple is instructed on how to defeat Lord Vader or Darth Maul. They can also take part in the Padawan Mind Challenge, a unique trivia contest just for kids.
